LESSON –When Someone Comes Knocking at Your Door 2 John 10-11

I. KEEP YOUR _____ OPEN (v. 8)

“Watch yourselves (stay alert), that you do not lose what you have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.”

The Key Thought — False teachers are out there, so don't think they will not _____ your life.

II. KEEP YOUR _____ CLOSED (v. 10a)

The Concept

“If anyone comes to you ...”

The Concern

“... and does not bring this teaching, ...”

The Command

“... do not receive him into your house, ...”

The Key Thought — We must not align ourselves with false teachers or churches (or any of their ministries) in any way that will confuse people about the truth of the _____ and the _____ of Jesus.

The importance of distinguishing “bad” teaching from “false” teachers

Bad Teaching	False Teachers

The Key Thought — Do not put every _____ Christian into the category of a false teacher.

III. KEEP YOUR _____ SHUT (vs. 10b-11)

The Phrase — What is John talking about?

“... and do not give him a greeting; ...”

The Problem — Why should you keep your wallet closed?

“...for the one who gives him a greeting participates in his evil deeds.”

The Key Thought — We are not to _____ false teachers or _____ them well.
